

The Battle of the Queens

Chess tournament for girls born by the desire of two young ladies to encourage girls to play competitive chess.

The Battle of the Queens is meant to be an occasion for girls to get together and know each other while challenging each other in a relaxed environment.

The 2017 Washington Women's Championship winner and WFM Chouchanik Airapetian will serve as tournament director!

Admission is free for all participants.

Pictures from
"The Battle of the Queens I",
October 2017